

21st Century Community Learning Centers

FACT SHEET

MAY 2023

Michigan 21st Century Community Learning Centers 2021-22 Program Highlights

Michigan's 21st Century Community Learning Centers (CCLC) program offers academic enrichment to students in high-poverty and low-performing schools. During the 2021-22 program year, there were 12 school-based agencies and 12 community-based organizations working as grantees to manage 250 sites and served over 15,000 school-aged youth. All Michigan 21st CCLC sites provided both afterschool and summer programming across Michigan.

Student Data

Enrollment in 2021-2022 recovered somewhat from the previous year but did not reach pre-pandemic levels. Of the 15,536 students in Michigan 21st CCLC programs, 85% were economically disadvantaged and 86% were academically low-performing.

Michigan 21st CCLC Student Characteristics

Figure 1. Student Race/Ethnicity

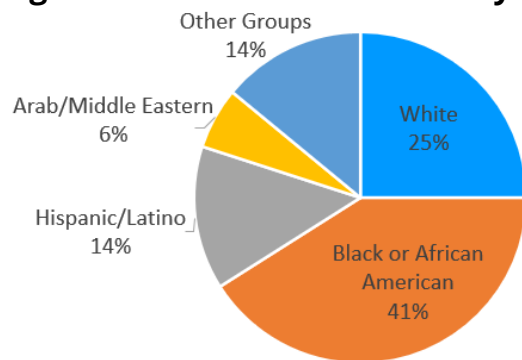

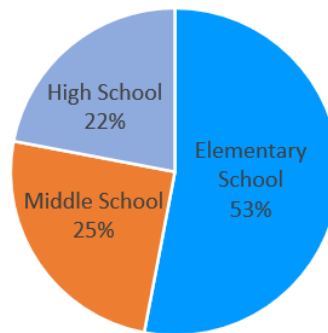

Figure 2. Student Grade Level

<http://bit.ly/43PpsNq>

University Outreach and Engagement

Activities

97% of students participated in at least one academic activity for more than 15 hours, including homework help and academic enrichment activities. More than half of high school students (55%) participated in credit recovery sessions.

Academic Outcomes

Among academically low-performing students, 43% improved their grades.

Among students identified by their teachers as being in need of improvement,

58%

Improved homework completion

66%

Improved classroom behavior

66%

Improved social-emotional development

Student Perceptions of Program Impacts

Surveys offered students statements about the effects of their 21st CCLC program. Percentages of students who agreed or strongly agreed are noted below for selected statements.

I'm encouraged to be the best that I can be 91%

My program helps me get better at being responsible for my actions 90%

I learn school subjects in fun ways at this program 84%

I learn new skills that help me in life 84%

For more information, see Michigan 21st CCLC annual evaluation reports at <https://cep.msu.edu/projects/21st-century-community-learning-centers/reports>